(b) and (d)

11. (C) As reported ref B, the Polish MFA positively assesses U.S. re-engagement with the Human Rights Council (HRC). When discussing the U.S.-announced candidacy for the HRC (ref A), the acting deputy director of the MFA's Department for United Nations and Human Rights, Jerzy Burski, said the GOP is "very pleased" and would "obviously" vote in favor of the U.S. He reiterated that Poland plans to run for a seat in 2010 and expressed hope that the USG would reciprocate with a vote in favor of Poland.

12. (C) Burski also raised the new draft Durban Review declaration circulated by Yuri Boychenko. Burski said that the Polish MFA is still studying it but considers it a vast improvement in terms of Polish redlines (e.g., defamation of religion language, not targeting any single country or region, no anti-Semitic references). Burski predicted the EU would find the new draft workable, but said the results of the preparatory committee meetings would be decisive. Burski said the GOP would appreciate U.S. views, especially in light of the USG's February 27 statement indicating a willingness to re-engage if there were a document that meets USG criteria.
